O God of all sal - va - tion, In ev - 'ry dark - est hour,
O God, your lov - ing pas - sion Is deep - er than our pain,
O God, when hate grows strong - er, With fear to pave its way,
O God, whose love will nev - er Be sil - enced, stalled or stilled,

Look down on your cre - a - tion With pi - ty and with power.
Look down, and in com - pas - sion Bring us to life a - gain.
The cry, 'Lord, how much long - er?' With bro - ken hearts we pray.
Set us to work wher - ev - er There're brid - ges to re - build.

In all the pain we're see - ing, For stran - ger as for friend,
When we are found des - pair - ing, When all seems lost to sin,
In all that is dis - may - ing In hu - man - kind's free will,
We'll take our life's vo - ca - tion To make, like heav'n a - bove,

15

We'll cling with all our be - ing To love that can - not end.
We'll hear your voice de - clar - ing That love a - lone will win.
We'll join our voi - ces, pray - ing That love with tri - umph still.
In this and ev - 'ry na - tion A king - dom built on love.
